

AVAYA ACS 6.0 PROCESSOR

Provides 3 line ports and 8 station ports, up to 15 line ports and 40 station ports.

Dual line Caller ID support puts the caller's name and number on your telephone display

Caller ID delivered to station when transferred from Auto Attendant. Delivers Caller ID information to a display telephone for any call that is connected directly or transferred from the Auto Attendant, ASA, or DXD

2 PC Card slots for backup/restore of system programming, voice messaging PC cards, ASA/DXD, and software upgrades

Direct connection of analog answering machines, fax machines, telephones, and modems to station ports

Compatible with Partner Voice Messaging PC Cards, Partner Mail VS, and Partner Messaging Release 1.0 voice mail systems

Support of 1600 DSL module, a module that contains up to 16 lines on one line jack 100 programmable system speed dial numbers

Internal call forwarding and call follow me

Remote Call Forward. Provides call forwarding without requiring the T1 module. This feature allows calls to a Partner telephone to be immediately forwarded to a personal speed dial number outside the Partner system.

2 contact-closure connections to control door locks, security systems, and other devices by using contact-closure adjunct

Music port for digital music on hold system

SMDR (Station Message Detail Recording) port

Built in Paging Port

2 Power failure transfer ports

Available at
D. A. K. Services, Inc
847-297-7006
www.dakphones.com